Recognize Value of Birds.

The quite general interest in bird-life and protection indicates the more general recognition of the value of birds in the great reciprocal relationships and harmonies of nature. Naturalists calculate that the progeny of a single pair of Gypsy moths, unchecked, would in eight years, destroy every vestige of foliage in the United States. Insect life is increasing to an alarming extent, adding to the cost and the hazards of crop-raising. It is said that the expense of fighting insects and the losses because of their depredations cost Massachusetts $5,000,000 annually. The loss is unquestionably duplicated in other states.

Town Steeped in History.

Tarragona, Spain, contains about 30,000 inhabitants, and pursues a lively trade in wines, nuts, fruits and oil. Martel and Pliny celebrated its sunny climate, and its wine, which in their day vied with the Falernian, but the full-bodied wines produced there today are used to give to port a healthier hue. The monks who were evicted from France a few years ago continue in this town their secret process of making the Grande Chartreuse, but, contrary to popular belief, Tarragon vinegar is not a product of Tarragon, Spain. On the whole, no visitor to Spain should neglect a visit to this wonderful old citadel, with its cyclopean walls and doorways, ajimez windows, ancient chapels, cathedral and ruins, steeped in the history of a dozen races.

Worth-While Quotation.

Look over the whole creation and you shall see that the band or cement that holds together all the parts of this great and glorious fabric is gratitude.—South.

WEIGHT FACTOR IN DISEASE

Surplus or Deficiency of Flesh is Big Menace to Life at Various Ages of Man.

Between forty and fifty a man who allows his weight to remain high is running more danger of an early demise than he would run if he contracted typhoid fever. What is more, if he were stricken with that disease his chances of recovery would be 10 per cent less than normal! A man who is thinner than the average, on the other hand, has less danger of dying in this decade than a man who tips the scales at the normal figure, says a writer in the American Magazine.

When a man is in his twenties a deficiency of 20 pounds in weight makes him 13 per cent more liable to fall before the scythe of the implacable reaper. A slight surplus of flesh seems to assist one in escaping diseases that cause death in this period—principally tuberculosis and typhoid fever.

A man in his fifties who is 20 pounds over normal weight has a 15 per cent mortality handicap to face. Should he be 40 pounds over weight his chances of dying are increased 45 per cent thereby.

Bad Colds From Sudden Changes

Spring brings all kinds of weather and with it come colds and the revival of winter coughs and hoarseness. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar H. M. will head off a new cold or stop the old one; the soothing balsams relieve the sore throat and heal the irritated tissue. Get a bottle to-day and start treatment at once. At your Druggists' 25c Formula on the bottle.—Advertisement.

Incentive to Industry.

"We are more industrious than our fathers because in the maintenance of industry are much greater in proportion to those likely to be employed in the maintenance of idleness than they were two or three centuries ago."—Adam Smith.

Could Not Be Spared.

Helen got into the bad habit of running away to some of her playmates' homes, and her mamma finally put a stop to it by tying her up a few times as a punishment. The other day she wanted a new rope to replace a broken and worn-out one on her sled, but her father wasn't able to locate one around the house. Then Helen said: "I know where there's a piece of rope, but that's the one mamma ties me up with when I run away."

Why Salem is "Pepper Port."

The first shipment of pepper ever brought into the United States was landed at Salem, Mass., by Jonathan Carnes, a Salem captain, in the year 1705. Other captains discovered the vast profits to be made by the importation of pepper, and so it came about that, up to as recently as 1861, Salem was known among seafaring men as the "Pepper port."

Pressing Invitation.

He—"You have a very bad cold." She—"Yes; and I'm glad of it." He—"Why, pray?" She—"Because I'm too hoarse to scream if you should attempt to kiss me."

You Need A Spring Laxative

"If I Only Had Time."

Do you remember what Balzac says? "Behind every human action there lies a labyrinth of determining causes of which God reserves to himself the right of final judgment." The next time the phrase, "If I only had the time," springs to your lips, don't let it escape! Bite it off, strangle it, swallow it. Open your mental investment ledger and figure up.—Exchange.

Thinking and Speaking.

"If thou thinkest twice before thou speakest once, thou wilt speak twice the better for it."—William Penn.

THE KENTUCKIAN FOR 1917

EVER since the year 1868, the HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN has been published under one name or another. In 1879 the present name was given and the present management took charge of the paper, which is now in its 39th volume. For almost 40 years it has been a faithful exponent of the growth and development of the city and county. It has written in its files a history of the county covering that long period. It has recorded the birth of three generations in some instances. It has seen the small town develop into a prosperous city with its people ever looking forward to greater things.

During all these years it has had a loyal and constant patronage from the best people of the county. It has many subscribers whose names have not been off its subscription lists in 39 years. In many other families sons have taken their father's places. We would be ungrateful not to appreciate support like this, but we have never come to the reading public with a stronger appeal for patronage than this year. Conditions have greatly changed and paper stock is three times as high as a year ago.

Many newspapers have advanced rates but in order that the circulation may not be lessened by a higher price the KENTUCKIAN will still be sent for $2.00 a year, the old price. It will be necessary though to adhere rigidly to the cash system, since more than $1.00 must be paid in advance for the paper upon which we print 156 papers and the cost of printing leaves but little profit out of the second dollar. We are asking our old subscribers to stand by us in this crisis by renewing promptly.

All papers not paid for will be Stopped.
Don't Let Yours Stop.

The Price Will be the same $2.00 a Year
as heretofore,
